1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Paul DiConza, attorney of record on April 18, 2005.

2. In the claims:

Withdrawn claims 29-63, inclusive, have been canceled.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The amendment to claim 1, which requires a step of agitating molten material using ultrasonic energy, overcomes any rejection of claims 1-25 based upon Angeliu et al. The Declaration under 37 CFR 1.131 filed February 28, 2005 overcomes any rejection based upon the Wang et al. PG Publication.

The prior art does not disclose or suggest a process which includes introducing a nano-sized material into a molten material in which it is substantially inert, dispersing the nano-sized material in the molten material by agitating using ultrasonic energy, and solidifying the molten material to form a nanocomposite material comprising a dispersion of the nano-sized material within a solid matrix.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably
